HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

So now the military planes are faster than their own bullets, huh?

A jet pilot shot himself down the other day when his plane ran into a stream of 20-millimeter cannon shells from his own guns.

At the rate we're going, a pilot who takes off tomorrow will find himself flying through today's weather yesterday. Or maybe yesterday's weather today.

How's that again?

I'm confused.

And that brings us to Proposition 4 . . . In response to popular demand (one phone call) I will now proceed to analyze this oil lawyer's delight and layman's despair.

Let's see. Conservation, it says here . . . Monopoly, it says here.

Nuts, it says here.

Seriously, I suspect some such law is needed. There was a time maybe, when Standard Oil was an octopus strangling the body politic. But not now. And cut-throat competition certainly is ruinous where natural resources are concerned.

My old friend Lee Wulff has his mug on another mag cover—the November issue of Flying. It's a color photo of him in his float-plane with some massive moose antlers tied on.

Wulff, who flies around making hunting and fishing movies for the national lecture circuit, shot the moose with a bow and arrow in Newfoundland.

He was a football and track star at State College during the 1920's.

Well, I saw the State-Marine game Saturday, in fact, I hollered myself hoarse during the first half when the Aztecs ran up a 19-point lead.

But that monstrous Marine line wore 'em down after the intermission. (The seven tackles on the squad average 234 pounds and stand 6-4.)

State had to block two extra-point kicks by the Marines in order to salvage a 19-19 tie.

Yeah, it was quite a game.

SLOGAN WINNER

Mrs. Francis S. Jones, of 1778 Cable St., was last week's winner in the Peninsula News Booster Slogan Contest. Her winning slogan and details of the weekly contest are on Page 8.

United Success Drive Totals $11,227 In Area

United Success Drive campaigners in the Ocean Beach-Point Loma area were continuing to Make More Miracles Happen as returns reached $11,227.

Mrs. Percy A. Rooks, campaign chairman said this was 42 per cent of the area's $26,702 quota.

She pointed out that campaigners are working very hard, but that the area was lagging behind according to results from comparable units.

"So far only the Dewey District headed by Mrs. Chester Dorman, Jr., has gone over its quota," she said.

She urged all persons not contacted by a campaigner to call United Success Headquarters, ACademy 3-7191 so they may dispatch a volunteer to tell the campaign story.

Meanwhile the entire drive climbed to $1,501,187 for 65.1 per cent of the $2,306,000 needed to continue the miracles happening every day in the lives of persons using the 90 Red Feather services who receive operating funds from the campaign.

Branch Library Planned For Pt. Loma Area

At a meeting of the Peninsula Coordinating Council, Miss Clara Breed, city librarian, announced that the Library Commission has purchased property at the corner of Poinsettia Dr. and Udal St. for a Point Loma branch library.

That report came yesterday from the Coordinating Council.

Richard F. Lustig, council president, said it "will set up the machinery to help the commission wherever help is needed."

Pt. Loma To Play Kearny Here Fri.

Point Loma High School's football team which showed improvement against El Cajon last week, will engage Kearny High Friday at 2:30 p.m. at the local field.

El Cajon defeated Point Loma 14-6 but the locals made a game of it all the way. Phil Meyer went through the line for a touchdown after El Cajon fumbled on its five-yard line.

Tony Silva looked good on defense.

Luckel Stresses Importance Of Rules Committee

Importance of membership on the Rules Committee of the State Assembly was cited this week by Frank Luckel in his campaign for re-election in the 78th District.

Luckel, second San Diegan ever to serve on this committee, said the members pass upon every job and every expenditure, all resolutions come before it prior to being submitted to the Assembly and this committee controls all items that go to the 26 other committees for interim study.

Luckel said he had authored several measures of such statewide importance that they came to be known as "Luckel Bills." The principal one of these was the legislation that provided for the dismissal or retirement of any state employee who refused to testify before a congressional or legislative committee concerning former membership in the Communist party.

Other "Luckel Bills" were the Progress Payment Plan governing Veteran's Farm and Home Loans, and the Anti-Secrecy legislation concerning public meetings and public records.

A native Californian, Luckel served in the Navy, retiring with the rank of captain.

He said he will continue to give full time to his legislative duties and to leadership in the Assembly "economy bloc."

20-30 Clubs Plan Dinner Dance Sat.

Ocean Beach and Pacific Beach 20-30 Clubs will entertain wives, new members and prospective members at a buffet dinner dance Saturday, Nov. 3 at 8 p.m. in the American Legion Hall, 1030 Grand Ave., Pacific Beach. Oscar Knauer Jr., Bob Moore and Bob Smith are in charge.

PIE & PISTOLS—Point Loma Assembly "pie-nite" co-chairman, Mrs. Ted Schroeder, tries to avert a husband-wife fracas. Fred Carlyle Thompson, left, and John Brose, dieting husbands, violently object to their wives' pre-"pie-nite" practice for the annual event, scheduled Nov. 8. Propositions K & L Vital To San Diego

Two measures designed to solve San Diego's critical school problem will be on the ballot Nov. 6.

These propositions are the result of the community's unprecedented growth and the increasing number of children seeking admission to the schools every year.

School officials say there must be accomodations for 26,000 new pupils between now and 1960. Currently, the enrollment is 77,000; the prediction is 103,000 four years hence.

Proposition K calls for a $27,000,000 bond issue for urgently needed schools and facilities. The money would provide 18 new elementary schools, three new junior high schools, two new senior high schools, additions to 18 existing schools, and portable classrooms and school sites as needed.

Proposition L would set a new tax limit for school operation. The present rate of $2 was established in the "hard dollar" days of 1937. Our Board of Education has done a remarkable job of stretching these dollars in the face of rising costs of services and supplies.

The new limit would be a more realistic $2.80. Based on the Board of Education's fine record of economy and prudence, it is conceivable that the maximum rate may never be needed.

Propositions K and L are a challenge—and the Peninsula News is confident the community will meet it.

Independent Oil Company President Cites Benefits Of Proposition 4

SAN FRANCISCO — The head of a small, independent oil company this week termed Proposition 4—the Oil Conservation Act—"The people's last chance to serve their own economic needs through their right of initiative," and urged all California voters to join him in a "Yes" vote Nov. 6.

Daniel J. Pickrell, president of Pexco, Inc., of San Francisco, told a state-wide radio network audience that his own convictions as to the value of Proposition 4's provision for unit operation of oil fields had been completely confirmed by an official statement of the United States Department of the Interior.

The Department, Pickrell said, considers unit operation "the best means yet devised for preventing waste resulting from uncontrolled, competitive drilling and production" and believes "unquestionably" that "millions of barrels of additional oil can be recovered above the amount of production deemed possible under competitive operation."

Speaking of the experience of oil men who have worked in unit operations in other States, Pickrell declared:

"I have yet to find one that could be considered unsuccessful because he wasn't allowed to produce the so-called maximum yield of an oil property under wasteful exploitation. There may be a few, of course, who are down to their last two Cadillacs."

Pickrell cited the many long-range public benefits that will derive from Proposition 4, and said:

"In the thinking of the informed citizen, oil conservation is weighed in terms of the years to come, not in terms of quick profits for today—and let tomorrow take care of itself. I urge every voter to say Yes on Proposition 4."

Opponents Predict Defeat Of No. 4

Prediction Proposition No. 4 will be defeated by 2,000,000 votes was made this week by W. H. Geis, chairman of the California Committee Opposed to Oil Monopoly, and E. G. Starr, president of the Association of Independent Oil Producers.

In a joint statement released from Committee Headquarters in Los Angeles, Geis and Starr reported polls taken by California newspapers "make clear the anti-conservation oil control bill will go down to one of the most crushing defeats" in the State's history.

"An overwhelming majority of the voters have reached the conclusion Proposition No. 4 isn't a conservation bill at all. Instead, it is in fact a monopoly bill that would victimize consumers and undermine the economy of the State," Geis and Starr said.

"The public has been able to see through the conservation smokescreen, despite the fact that the eight importing companies backing Proposition No. 4 have expended more than $6,000,000 in a campaign of deception."

Geis and Starr said public resentment against Proposition No. 4 "reached new heights when the Standard Oil Company forced us to submit to the censorship of more than 1,000 billboards we had contracted for throughout the State."

The Committee was able to bring the "censored" message to the attention of the public through statewide advertising in all daily and weekly newspapers, it was said.

Burgener Opens Realty Office

Clair W. Burgener, realtor, this week announced the opening of offices in the new Horizon House at 3252 Rosecrans St.

"We handle properties of all descriptions," he said, "ranging from modestly priced G.I. tract homes to exclusive estate properties. We also handle acreage, business properties, and commercial leasing.

"We are proud to join the family of realtors who serve this beautiful and expanding area."

League Of Women Voters Supports Propositions 2, 8 & 14; Opposes 10

The League of Women Voters of California has taken stands on four of the propositions which will appear on the Nov. 6 election ballot. They support Propositions 2, 8 and 14, and oppose 10.

Proposition 2 would authorize the issuance of an additional $100,000,000 in bonds to aid local school districts in building and equipping schools. Support for this comes as the result of an intensive study in the past year of the administrative and financial structure of public education in California.

Proposition 8 and 14 are supported as the result of an agreement by the League of Women Voters of California to work for public support of organization, staffing, and financing of the legislature which would permit it to operate efficiently and democratically.

Proposition 14 would permit us to have the legislative help needed in a forthright manner, without resorting to all the obscure practices used now.

Opposition to Proposition 10 arises from the belief that it is unnecessary, ambiguous, and a threat to the state merit system. This measure would permit the employment of private architects and engineers outside of the state civil service whenever "the public interest requires such work to be done." It is considered unnecessary since the state already has an established method for contracting with private individuals.

There are 269 classifications in state civil service requiring professional engineering and architectural training. Conceivably, litigation might be required to clarify the meaning of the measure.

"Furthermore, if any clarification of the right to contract is necessary, the public interest demands that it be of general application and not limited to one group," it was said.

Snow on Point Loma Predicted For Five Evenings In November

There will be a heavy snowstorm at Point Loma on the evenings of Nov. 8, 9, 10, 16 and 17 during the second act of "Gold in the Hills, or the Dead Sister's Secret," the thrilling 1890 melodrama presented by the California Western University Players. According to the prediction of one of the characters in the play, "There will be a foot more of snow before morning."

But every precaution has been taken to guide home the erring daughter, Nellie, who in the first act was cast out of the house by her stern father. There is a lamp in the window to guide the wanderer home. But when she returns, six months later, on Christmas Eve she is wearing a fur coat and brings with her a 7-year-old child.

It is all carefully explained in the final curtain, and the audience is requested not to divulge the secret lest it lessen the enjoyment of future audiences.

The snowstorm will be managed by Mrs. Fran Burnett, with appropriate sound effects by John Wright. Mrs. Etoile Anderson is in charge of properties, assisted by Mrs. L. S. McCall. What Mrs. Anderson needs most at the moment is some sleigh bells, seemingly a minus quantity in San Diego.

Sue Ann Wilson, Ann Morgan, and Mrs. Eve Sparks are in charge of costumes of the period. Lighting effects will be handled by Dick Kerstens. The setting, a New England farmhouse, is being designed and executed by Raymond Sparks, assisted by Philip Harstine, Kenneth Moye, and Edward Naylor. The director is Carl Glick.

The play will be given in the Little Theatre of Salomon Hall on the campus of California Western University. Since this theatre seats only 63, it is urged that those wishing tickets make their reservations early, either by phoning AC-2-6807, or at the Administration Building on the campus.

Immunizations Set Thursday At O.B. School

Protection against diptheria, and for younger children against whooping cough and lockjaw, also, will be given at the Ocean Beach Elementary School next Thursday, Nov. 8.

Pre-school and afternoon kindergarten children are to be in the auditorium at 8:30 a.m. Older chidlren and morning kindergarteners will receive immunization with others in their class, soon after 9 a.m., it was announced.

Consent slips to be signed by parents have been sent home with the children. More consent slips are obtainable at the school.

No child will receive this protection without the signature of parent or guardian requesting it.

Peninsula Groups Endorse School Propositions

Among organizations endorsing the San Diego School District's two financial propositions on the Nov. 6 ballot are:

Ocean Beach Kiwanis Club Board of Directors, Point Loma Methodist Church Official Board. Silvergate PTA; Sunset View PTA, and Dana Junior High PTA. It was announced today To date 196 groups have endorsed the proposals.

Proposition K provides for a $27 million bond issue, to finance school construction needed to house an additional 20,000 children expected to be in attendance by 1960.

The other measure, Proposition L, would permit the Board of Education to set the operating school tax rate at a figure not to exceed $2.80 per $100 of assessed valuation. The present limitation, established in 1937, is $2.00.

The endorsing groups urged members to "publicize as far as possible the urgency of these propositions to assure a vote in excess of the required amount for both measures."

Final Performances Of 'Robin Hood' Scheduled For Saturday & Sunday

The Junior Theatre presentation of "Robin Hood," which opened last weekend to an enthusiastic audience of youngsters and adults, will be repeated this Saturday and Sunday afternoons at 2:30 p.m. in Roosevelt Junior High School Auditorium.

Jack Donnelly, director, has managed to capture all the excitement that everyone expects from the adventures of Robin Hood. The play is full of suspenseful action, especially during the Nottingham Fair scene where Robin Hood and the best archers compete, which is followed by an exciting chase.

Costumes, under the direction of Mrs. Ralph L. Clark, lent themselves to the authenticity of the era and harmonized beautifully with the scenes of the play.

Delightful dancing sequences were under the direction of Mrs. John R. Rielly, Jr.

Robert Rankin, who played the title role, gave an outstanding performance and made a very handsome hero.

"Robin Hood" is a show for the whole family to enjoy. Tickets for the two remaining performances may be purchased at Roosevelt before each performance or by phoning BE-4-1447.

Peninsula boys and girls who have featured roles are Phil Clark, as Friar Tuck, Ralph Bonacker as Adam, and Ann and Diane Kristell as the Two Heralds. All score in their performances. Mike Feldman is a member of the dancing group.

Chairman Urges Proposition C

A final plea to the citizens of San Diego to vote Yes on Proposition C was made this week by C. Arnholt Smith, Jr., general chairman of the Citizens' Committee for Passage of Proposition C.

Proposition C will raise the mayor's salary from $5,000 to $12,000 per year and abolish his expense account. Smith pointed out that the mayor's salary was set in 1932 when San Diego was a town of less than 150,000 population.

"Today," Smith said, "San Diego is a major city with a population of one-half million and the mayor's responsibilities and duties have accordingly increased. What was adequate pay for a part-time 1932 job is manifestly unfair for a full time 1956 job."

Smith said that 43 percent of the employees of the city of San Diego, including the mayor's secretary, make more money than he does.

Smith said that an average salary for mayor in cities in the one-half million population bracket is $14,300.

Wilson will conduct a whirlwind tour of the 30th district in the closing week of the campaign, according to Earl Roberts, his campaign manager.

The 30th District Congressman was among local Republicans to welcome Vice-President Nixon on his arrival in San Diego for a speaking engagement Tuesday. Wilson has been accompanying Nixon on the vice-president's campaign swings around the country.

Mrs. Husbands appointed the following committees: Ways and Means, Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Charles Edwards, Mrs. Bill Lucido; Publicity, Mrs. John Kerr, Mrs. Alec Alexander; Telephone, Mrs. Lee Coley, Mrs. Jim Stewart, Mrs. Jack Arneson; New Members, Mrs. Jules Joniaux; Attendance, Mrs. Tom Arnold; Liaison, Mrs. Ted Bates; Social, Mrs. Tony Woodward, Mrs. Dorothy LaBrincha.

It was voted by the group to prepare Christmas boxes for the needy, and work was begun on the project.

At the close of the business session, a surprise stork shower was held for Mrs. Lee Coley, and games were played. Mrs. Bill Lucido, the hostess, served refreshments.

The September meeting of the Lioness Club was a potluck supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Van Stelle, at which the husbands of the members were guests. The new Lioness Club officers were installed at that time by Lester Husbands, past president of the Ocean Beach Lions Club. Mrs. Lee Coley, the outgoing president, was presented with a gift.

Adventists Urged To Oppose No. 5

Mrs. Florence Oster, delegate from the Ocean Beach Seventh-day Adventist church, together with approximately 500 other representatives from all denominations, attended the annual State WCTU convention in San Luis Obispo, Oct. 15-19.

A warning that "a moral crisis has been reached in California and that the state is faced with the possibility of a flood of crime and lawlessness" was sounded by Mrs. Oster in her report to the Adventist church Oct. 27.

Mrs. Oster, speaking at the church, cited Proposition 5 on the November ballot as "a bad measure which if passed will bring back the old-time saloon and create moral chaos."

Members of the church were urged by the pastor, R. E. Delafield, in the church bulletin, to oppose Proposition 5 on the grounds that it is "not in the interest of public safety and welfare."

HEALTH FOR ALL

..One of the most important trends in business today is the great importance given to "the package."

A manufacturer develops a new product or wants to give a new boost to an old product. One of his first considerations is the package. What type will keep it in the best condition on the dealer's shelf and also be attractive to the buyer and convenient for his use?

One of the most outstanding jobs in packaging has been done on man himself. Modern science is not likely to improve on the job that was originally done millions of years ago. Tender as it is and subject to cuts and bruises, human skin is designed to last a lifetime, constantly renewing itself.

No commercial manufacturer could afford to give each package of his product a unique design. But your package is uniquely your own. The pattern of your fingerprints is never duplicated. The skin from one part of your body can be transplanted to another part, but when transplanted to any other but an identical twin, will live only for awhile.

Your skin is an efficient storehouse. Fats and water, salts, sugars, and other essentials are stored in your skin and can be returned to the blood stream when they are needed elsewhere. Your skin can even supply emergency blood to vital organs on demand.

Keeping your temperature normal is part of the skin's job. The blood vessels expand to increase the heat loss and cool the body and contract to conserve the warmth in the body. The sweat glands in the skin are also devices to regulate temperature. Nerve endings throughout the skin provide the "sense of touch"—a warning system which helps us protect our bodies from heat, cold and pain.

Despite the fact that the efficiency of the human package has improved itself, man (and woman) constantly trying to improve its appearance. Sometimes by decorating it with paints and scorching it to achieve a fashionable tan, man injures the delicate fabric that covers him. But its magnificent capacity to renew itself usually baffles man's worst efforts.

MORE and MORE CHILDREN THOUSANDS EVERY YEAR...

MORE School-age Children
Mean MORE of Everything!

MORE { Schools, Classrooms, Teachers — Textbooks and Supplies, Non-teaching Employees, Money

We must prepare NOW for a school enrollment of 103,000 by 1960 – an increase of 26,000 over this year's enrollment.

Two vitally important measures will be on the ballot November 6:

Proposition "K" – a $27,000,000 bond issue to finance school construction:

18 new Elementary Schools;
3 new Junior High Schools;
2 new Senior High Schools;
Additions to 18 existing schools;
More portable classrooms, and new sites, where needed; and other necessary projects.

Proposition "L" – places a new limitation on the annual tax rate which the Board of Education may set for the purpose of meeting the cost of operating our ever-expanding school system. The present $2.00 limit, fixed 20 years ago, is totally inadequate. The Board would be authorized to set a rate as needed, not to exceed $2.80, to meet the rising cost of education.

Total school enrollment is steadily increasing, while the assessed valuation per pupil is beginning to decline.

Of the 30 largest school districts in California, 23 have voted new limits . . . Two more are voting this year.

73 Lomans Take Screening Exams

National Merit Scholarship Corp. screening examinations were taken by 372 seniors in seven city high schools last week, according to a report issued by school officials. The examinations were the first of a series of three tests which will qualify the ultimate winners for four-year tuition scholarships to colleges of their choice, based on financial need.

Competing seniors represented more than 13 per cent of the 2,837 students in the 12th grade. Students ranking scholastically in the upper 5 per cent of their senior classes were invited to take the tests without charge. The remaining students paid a $1 fee.

The participating high schools and the number of students competing from each (number in upper 5 percent indicated by parentheses) are: Hoover 107 (40), Kearny 17 (12), La Jolla 58 (7), Lincoln 22 (15), Mission Bay 51 (21), Point Loma 73 (16), and San Diego 44 (28).

Four city school students were among the national scholarship winners last year. San Diego led school districts in California in the number of scholarship winners.

Wall Clip in Workshop Made of Door Spring

A WORKSHOP file can be made from a length of ½" door spring fastened at each end to a wooden back or directly to the wall, according to The Home Craftsman. As illustrated, the spring provides a generous clip-type holder for sheets of sandpaper, small plans or blueprints, seed packets, photographs and similar items. This type of file may be used not only in a workshop but a garage, den or darkroom. Its advantage lies in its adaptability to various sizes and thickmesses of material placed in it. All are kept within full view and easy reach.

MULLING WITH MULLER

By Edna M. Muller

If you've ever run your hand over the elegant texture of velvet upholstery on some delicate piece of period furniture you've probably sighed enviously and wondered how long the same material would last with the children scooting around the living room and hubby draping his tired feet over the divan. Well Candalon Spot-Shed velvet, I think, is the answer to all homemakers, for here is a luxury material that really stands up under all conditions and holds its beauty. What's more this wonderful cotton velvet upholstery is resistant to water, all water-borne stains, spotting and crushing!

Because of its simple cleaning qualities and its resistance to wear the only thing that may pose a problem will be making a selection from the dozens of breath-taking colors. Sage Green, Red Grape, Meteor Blue, Persimmon, are only a few of the exquisite shades that lend regal beauty to any room.

The fabric can be bought by-the-yard in better department stores and is available on many pieces of furniture. For instance, I purchased a couple of Victorian chairs covered with Spot-Shed velvet, that blend in beautifully in the living room as occasional chairs, which, by the way, are quite the rage. We've waited a long time for such a luxury material — but it certainly has been worth waiting for!

Incidentally, because this is generally the season we ladies plan decorating — thought you might like to know about the beautifully illustrated new B. H. & G. Decorating Book which contains a wealth of how-to-help information and is a practical guide for the busy homemaker. No matter how aware we are of the importance of color or design or balance — there are instances when we're faced with perplexing problems such as achieving a "big room" look in a small space . . . dressing up awkward windows . . . or maybe stretching the budget dollar for furnishings. There just doesn't seem to be a decorating need that this delightful volume doesn't cover!

Model Train Table Has "Peg-Board" Top

A MODEL train table has been designed to permit the wiring underneath to be brought to the surface at any point. This flexibility of wiring enables the young owner of the model train (and his Dad) to have utmost flexibility of track arrangements and accessories.

The multi-purpose top is a 4' x 8' sheet of ¼" Masonite "Peg-Board", which has scores of holes spaced one inch apart in rows. Tracks may be fastened along any desired route simply by wiring some of the ties through the holes. The table surface is uncluttered by wires, which are strung underneath and permitted to emerge only where needed on top.

Directions for making the sturdy table, as well as putting up a ⅛" "Peg-Board" panel on the wall for keeping accessories of the model train handy, are given in a free plan, No. AE-328. For a copy, send a postal to the Home Service Bureau, Suite 2037, 111 W. Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill.

A perspective in the plan shows a typical train layout in a boy's room, including a handy workbench adjacent to it. The bench is covered with Tempered Presdwood which, like the perforated panel, is splinter-free and therefore safe for the hands.

No Demand For Salk Vaccine Here

The Salk vaccine, described as one of the great medical discoveries of our time, is going unused here.

San Diego County is returning 8,000 doses of the public supply of Salk vaccine because of lack of demand from parents, according to Dr. J .B. Askew, Director of Public Health. Because the vaccine is due to expire on December 4, 1956. Dr. Askew said, "It is only just that the vaccine be returned by San Diego County so that other areas in California who want the vaccine may have it to protect their children from paralytic poliomyelitis."

Dr. Askew urged all parents of children 0 thruogh 19 years of age and pregnant women to see their family physicians as soon as possible about vaccination against paralytic poliomyelitis. Experience in San Diego County has proved the vaccine 85 per cent effective in reducing the incidence of paralytic poliomyelitis, he said.

The public supply of Salk vaccine is available for pregnant women and children 0 to 19 years of age by bringing to the Department of Public Health a prescription from a physician, Askew said. The Salk vaccine is distributed from three centers, including 3330 Congress St. at the Health Department main office in San Diego. The public supply of Salk vaccine was set up by Congress to supplement the commercial supply to make sure that the vaccine would be available to every child.

Parents of children in the 0 to 4 age group should know, Dr. Askew said, that this year the incidence of poliomyelitis has been higher among these younger children. The reason for the increase of poliomyelitis among the children under 5 years may be explained by the fact that early inoculation programs with Salk vaccine concentrated on the 5 to 9 age group, he said.

In San Diego County so far this year, the highest percentage of reported cases of poliomyelitis occurred in the 1 to 4 age group (31 percent). Twenty-one percent of the reported cases of polio were in the 5 to 9 age group as compared to 33⅓ percent in previous years.

AFTER CENSORSHIP...

This is one of a thousand billboards censored with strips of white paper to blot out the words "monopoly" and "you."

On October 10, Standard Oil Company—a principal backer of Proposition No. 4—wrote a letter to California outdoor advertising companies objecting to the word "monopoly" in poster copy submitted by opponents of Proposition No. 4. The next day six companies refused to permit the words "MONOPOLY" or "YOU" on the posters. Six other companies —small independents—refused to be pushed around by Standard Oil and posted the original copy. Today, throughout California, these butchered billboards stand as shameful witnesses to Standard Oil's might. They prove that—WHAT STANDARD WANTS, STANDARD GETS—UNTIL NOW!

Cities, Counties Endorse No. 1, Legion Reports

The following Boards of County Supervisors have officially endorsed Proposition No. 1 on the November ballot: Alameda, Amador, Contra Costa, Glenn, Imperial Kern, Lassen, Los Angeles, Merced, Monterey, Plumas, Sacramento, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Francisco, San Joaquin, San Luis Obispo, Solano, Sonoma, Tuolumne, Ventura, El Dorado, Stanislaus, Colusa, Kings, Mariposa, Mendocino, Siskiyou, Tulare, Del Norte, Marin, Placer, Butte.

In addition the City Councils of the following cities have officially put their stamp of approval upon Proposition No. 1: Inglewood, Los Angeles, Jackson, Orland, Redwood City, Richmond, Santa Rosa, Sutter Creek, Vallejo, Willows, Paso Robles, San Bruno, Sonora, San Diego, Sacramento, Susanviille, San Mateo, Sonoma, Oroville, Palm Springs.

The above information has been received by Nelda Ward, who is a member of The American Legion's State-wide Farm and Home Committee of 1000.

"This Bond issue in the amount of $500,000,000 to continue a program well tested by 35 years of efficient operation, will never cost the taxpayer anything because the California veteran pays the entire cost of redemption and administration," she said.

"Furthermore, the voting public may be quite sure that when our California Legislature unanimously approves a measure, and the people's County and City representatives unanimously approve, as reflected above, there can be no valid opposition to support of our CAL-VET program."

"And we believe the most important facet of this CAL-VET program is the fact it puts veterans into their own homes where they become a taxpaying member of their community and become fully cognizant of their responsibilities as citizens.

Contract Bridge Classes Planned

Contract bridge classes for men and women will be held at Ocean Beach Community Center, pending completion of registration, it was announced by Mrs. Evelyn Sahfran.

Mrs. Gail Readus, instructor, will teach the latest rules and plays. For additional information, call Mrs. Sahfran at AC-3-0692 or the center at AC-3-1175.

Panhellenic Luncheon Set

A large groups of Pt. Loma women is planning to attend the November San Diego City Panhellenic Association luncheon, which will be held on Saturday, the 3rd, at the Lafayette Hotel. Preceding the 12:45 luncheon there will be an executive board meeting. Later in the afternoon guests will play bridge or canasta.

Mrs. Victor S. Gaulin has planned appropriate table decorations. There will be miniature elephants and donkeys to remind everyone that election day is near.

Early reservations for the luncheon have been received by Mrs. John H. Warner and Mrs. Werner C. Dieckmann from Mrs. Harold Messenger, Mrs. George S. Ditmars, Mrs. L. R. Jefferson, Mrs. H. D. Hickman and Mrs. M. P. George.
